Timon of Athens and Jay Gatsby

The similarity between Timon and Jay Gatsby is that both of them use money to buy friends and people to spend time with.

They become big faces only because they organize parties and invite a lot of people, but when they waste all of their money on other people and parties, their so called "friends" leave them and they are left alone in the world

When Jay Gatsby dies, no one shows up at his funeral and Timon dies in the wilderness and he leaves an epitaph.

The death of Jay Gatsby Shows that money cant buy everything we need.

Through communicating and trust you can earn your place in society

Sličnost između Timona i Jaya Gatsbyja je to što obojica koriste novac da bi kupili prijatelje i ljude s kojim provode vrijeme. Oni postaju popularni samo zato što organiziraju zabave na koje pozivaju mnogo ljudi, no kada potroše sav novac, njihovi tzv „prijatelji“ ostavljaju ih same. Kad Jay umre, nitko se ne pojavi na njegovom sprovodu, dok Timon umire u divljini, povučen od ljudi i ostavlja za sobom epitaf. Smrt Jaya Gatsbyja pokazuje da novac ne može kupiti sve što nam treba. Kroz komunikaciju i povjerenje tek mi osiguravamo svoje mjesto u društvu.
